

Welcome to the 18th Festival of American Old Time Music and Dance.

Please read the essential information overleaf. FOAOTMAD stewards and committee members are also available to help with any queries.

We are in a confined space at times, please remember your safety and the safety of others (if you see any problems please let a steward know or go to the information desk) and we hope you enjoy your festival.

The cafeteria and bar will be open for much of the festival. Check their opening times as displayed.

Sessions on the main premises until late – the main school area will be locked and alarmed shortly after midnight. You may continue in the changing rooms but, if you session late, please be considerate to those sleeping in the gymnasium.

Telephone numbers for local taxi companies are on a notice in the reception area.

Please note that the Annual General Meeting will take place at 9:30 on Sunday. Check the notices in the foyer to find out where. Please be aware that the meeting has to finish before the 11:00 workshop. If you are a member, your attendance would be appreciated.

Results of the competitions
Moonshine Hollow
Christine Cooper, Barry Southern & Alan Wright
Ira Bernstein & Riley Baugus
New North Carolina Ramblers

Both evening concerts will be followed immediately by a short Square Dance with Julie Cross calling. On Friday night the music will be under the influence of Andrew and Emily and Saturday will be Moonshine Hollow. Assistance with clearing back some of the chairs would be appreciated.

Saturday afternoon 2:00 to 4:00 approx

Competitions for fiddle, banjo, clogging and scratch bands. Co-ordinated by Keith Burrows. Ask at the information desk for registration details.

Saturday afternoon 4:00 to 6:00 approx

Dance Display by Step This Way followed by an Open Mike in the main hall to hone your performing skills. Co-ordinated by Christine Bell, sign-up sheets in the foyer.

Sunday morning 10:30 to 12:30

Dance party in the main hall hosted by Ira Bernstein and Riley Baugus for dancers of all abilities and those musicians who fancy the opportunity to play for them.

Workshop information:

Workshops, in general, are for limited numbers. There are no sign-up sheets but please be realistic about the amount of space in the classrooms and the wishes of the tutors where large groups are concerned.

The rooms for music workshops will be shown on the lists displayed in the reception area.

All clogging workshops will take place in the Hall.

Essential information:

FOAOTMAD or the school are not responsible for damage or loss to your valuables/possessions.

Dogs and other pets must be exercised OFF SITE and are not allowed in the buildings.

Smoking is forbidden on ALL of the site – this a Lincolnshire County Council condition, not ours. The nearest smoking point is OUTSIDE the main gate.

Use of any naked flame for cooking in the school is not allowed. If you intend cooking please make sure you are outside and away from potential hazards.

Please avoid parking on the grass wherever possible

We are in a confined space at times. Please remember your safety and the safety of others.
In case of fire, evacuate the buildings and raise the alarm. We are at the Queen Elizabeth High School, Morton Terrace, Gainsborough, DN21 2ST. Do not stop to collect your belongings. The recommended marshalling point is on the lawn in front of the school.
